From the President

Ruth McCandless

2016-2017 Theme:
Community

Many thanks to our members for their flexibility during the Church's Vacation Bible School. From the arrangement of the tables to providing card tables for registration, membership and the club shop so many of you helped out with a smile.

Abby Hamessley Lowe from the Parker County Heritage Society was certainly entertaining and informative. Her enthusiasm for the structural history of Weatherford makes one want to drive or walk around the area and see first hand why Weatherford is so intriguing to people.

Have you ever wanted to be able to talk without opening your mouth? Our guest speaker for the August meeting is Gloria Gilbert Barron, a professional ventriloquist. Some of you might know her as Miss Texas 1982 and TCU graduate. We can all start practicing and come to next club meeting to see how it's done.

See you on August 11th.

Thought for the Month

Secret Angels Reveal!

All of the mysteries of the Secret Angels are about to be uncovered! The reveal will be at the August General Meeting. This will be the last month to bring a gift to your Secret Angel, but don't reveal your name in your gift.

If you want to be part of Secret Angels next year, you can sign up for a new Secret Angel at the August General Meeting or contact Charlene Amburn (325-330-1468 or enie1946@yahoo.com).

Secret Angels involves ladies signing up to be a "secret angel" to another member beginning in September of each year.

Throughout the year, a secret angel sends or leaves a little something at the General Meeting to let the receiver know she is being thought of.
